Re: In Re: Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001, 03 MDL 1570 (GBD) (SN)

Dear Judge Netburn:

The Federal Insurance, Burnett, and O'Neill plaintiffs write to request a modification of the Court's order governing briefing in the Da Afghanistan Bank ("DAB") turnover proceedings, ECF No. 7750, given disparate positions among the PECs firms and clients and procedural issues relating to the current status of the Federal Insurance judgment. The Court's Order authorized the PECs to file a single brief by April 20, 2022 and authorized the Havlish and Doe plaintiffs to file their replies, either separately or collectively, by April 27, 2022.

As the Court is aware, the Federal Insurance, Burnett, and O'Neill plaintiffs have joined the framework agreement described in their March 22, 2022 letter, while the Ashton plaintiffs have elected not to do so. Given this circumstance, the Ashton plaintiffs will be asserting divergent positions from those of the Federal Insurance, Burnett, and O'Neill plaintiffs in the turnover proceedings.

The Federal Insurance, Burnett, and O'Neill plaintiffs anticipate filing their own motion for turnover as soon as the Clerk issues the Final Judgment contemplated by the Court's Order at ECF No. 7833, and service of the writ of attachment based on that Final Judgment upon the Federal Reserve Bank of New York is completed. Issuance of that Final Judgment is pending the Court's approval of the interest calculation submitted at ECF No. 7836, and as a result the framework plaintiffs are not yet in position to secure a writ and complete service.<sup>1</sup> The motion for turnover they will file upon accomplishment of those steps will join in (and potentially augment) the turnover arguments pursuant to TRIA presented by the Havlish plaintiffs in the brief and related submissions already presented to the Court.

As for the Ashton plaintiffs, they will be asserting positions different from, and likely contrary to, those of the framework plaintiffs. As to those arguments, we anticipate that the Federal Insurance,

<sup>1</sup> Under the circumstances, the Final Judgment at issue will secure interests of the Burnett, and O'Neill plaintiffs, as well as the Federal Insurance plaintiffs. To issue that Final Judgment, the Clerk's Office needs the Court to communicate approval of the prejudgment interest calculation submitted to the Court at ECF No. 7836-1 page 9 of 9. The interest calculator tool used can be found at the following link: <https://financial-calculators.com/compound-interest-calculator#nav-calculator>.

Burnett, and O'Neill plaintiffs would be largely, if not entirely, aligned with the Havlish plaintiffs in responding.

In light of these circumstances and in lieu of joining in the brief authorized at ECF No. 7750 (which we anticipate Ashton counsel will file asserting their separate positions referenced in the preceding paragraph), the Federal Insurance, Burnett, and O'Neill plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court authorize the Federal Insurance, Burnett, and O'Neill plaintiffs to file a letter, not to exceed 2 pages, confirming their intention to join the turnover proceedings through their own motion for turnover as soon as the Federal Insurance Final Judgment has issued and service of the writ has been accomplished.. At the present time, we anticipate that the Federal Insurance, Burnett, and O'Neill plaintiffs will be able to join in the Havlish reply to the Ashton opposition. If the content of the Ashton filing necessitates an additional brief, we will seek leave to file one at that time.

We have discussed this proposal with the Havlish, Doe and Ashton plaintiffs, and they have indicated they have no objection.

Respectfully submitted,

The Federal Insurance Plaintiffs' request is GRANTED. The Federal Insurance Plaintiffs, along with all other plaintiffs participating the agreement described in the letter at ECF No. 7790 (the "Framework Agreement Plaintiffs"), may submit a letter of no more than two pages confirming their intention to join in the turnover proceedings initiated by the Havlish Plaintiffs. The Ashton Plaintiffs may filed the 20-page brief originally allotted to the Plaintiffs' Executive Committees at ECF No. 7750. Other plaintiffs not joining in the Framework Agreement Plaintiffs' letter may join in this brief.

SO ORDERED.
